Victor I. Gavron, Ph. D.

Los Alamos Nuclear Science and Engineering (LANSCE) LLC,
716 Pinon Drive, Santa Fe, NM 87501, 505-412-7076
gavron@lansce.com,
http://www.lansce.com

Qualifications summary:
- Dr. Gavron is a Ph.D. Nuclear Scientist, retired from the Los Alamos National Laboratory (LANL) in 2014, after 36 years there. Subsequently served as consultant to DOE and DHS
- He has extensive experience in management and program development, pursuing and obtaining funding and staffing opportunities
- He is a leader, innovator, and motivator

Work experience details

- Leadership of programs including
  - Basic nuclear science
  - Applied nuclear science
  - Nuclear non-proliferation and safeguards science
  - Simulation of nuclear systems
  - Homeland security systems
  - Health Physics

- Management experience:
  - Deputy Group Leader, "Neutron Nuclear Science", (Staff of 20)
  - Group Leader, "Safeguards Science and Technology", (Staff of 80)
  - Acting Deputy Division Leader, "Non-proliferation and International Security", (Staff of 400)
  - Spokesperson for several physics research projects at national labs around the USA

- Government agencies Dr. Gavron worked with:
  - Department of Energy
  - Department of Homeland Security
  - Department of State (including 2-year assignment in Washington, DC)
  - Department of Defense (Defense Threat Reduction Agency)

- Awards:
  - State Department Certificate of Appreciation for Outstanding Service
  - (LANL Team) Distinguished Performance Award – Second Line of Defense

- Publications:
  - 69 refereed publications and 48 conference proceedings publications.